

KING HUSSEIN OF JORDAN (1952-1999): LEADERSHIP, STRATEGY AND THE MAKING OF A MODERN STATE

Explore King Hussein's leadership, military strategy and statecraft, and their role in shaping modern Jordan.

Speaker

Dr Vincent Arbaretier

Military Historian and Modern Middle East Specialist
CNAM Paris

Dr Vincent Arbaretier is a military historian and modern Middle East specialist at CNAM Paris, currently completing a Habilitation on King Hussein as a military leader and strategist. Formerly Chief of the Military History Department at the French Defence Historical Institute, he has authored three books and over twenty scholarly publications.

Wednesday, 7 October 2026

6:00 PM — Beirut / Amman (EEST)

5:00 PM — Lausanne / Bratislava (CEST)

4:00 PM — United Kingdom (BST)

REGISTER NOW

